Correspondence

The Reith Lectures

SIR

Most of your December issue relating to Ian Kennedy's Reith Lectures, was a discussion of the patient-doctor relationship, by a mixed medical group with the 1980 Reith Lecturer, a lawyer.

There was mention neither of kindness nor of compassion.

Another lawyer seeking to clarify 'love your neighbour as yourself' asked Jesus 'Who is my neighbour?'

The sequel, we all know, was the parable of the good Samaritan. Asked by Jesus 'Which of these three do you think was neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?', the lawyer answered 'The one who showed him kindness'. Jesus said 'Go and do as he did'. (1).
