

ON DYING WELL

An Anglican Contribution to the Debate on Euthanasia

This book is the outcome of the deliberations of a distinguished Working Party on the prime issue of whether or not fresh legislation on the subject of Voluntary Euthanasia was either necessary or desirable – if the moral ground for it were to be conceded.

The problems posed concern all clergy, jurists and laity as well as members of the medical profession, and the book indicates lines of approach in seeking Christian answers.

The contents include: Moral and Theological Considerations; Case Histories; Further Medical Factors; Legal Considerations; Conclusions and two useful Appendices.

... this difficult subject has been analysed with rare clarity of thought.

British Journal of Medical Education

The Journal of the Association for the Study of Medical Education

The aim of the British Journal of Medical Education is to act as a medium for interchange of information on medical education—Undergraduate, Postgraduate, and Continuing—in the United Kingdom and Overseas. It hopes to encourage the objective study of medical education both in the United Kingdom and throughout the world. The journal gives preference to the reporting of fact rather than opinion. The journal is published in March, June, September and December.

MEDICINE IN OLD AGE

(ISBN 0 900221 93 3)

The series of twenty-two articles published in the British Medical Journal has been collected in book form as a convenient source of reference for general practitioners. The emphasis is on remedial mechanisms, and the use that can be made of psychogeriatric and social services in keeping the elderly healthy and relatively independent members of the community.
