KENNEDY INSTITUTE OF ETHICS JOURNAL

The Kennedy Institute of Ethics Journal offers a scholarly forum for diverse views on major issues in bioethics, such as active euthanasia, genetics, health care reform, and organ transplantation. With glowing reviews in JAMA, Library Journal, and The Journal of the Medical Humanities, as well as article citations in major medical and lay publications, the Journal has quickly established itself as a leading publication in the medical humanities. Each issue includes "Scope Notes," an overview and extensive annotated bibliography on a specific topic in bioethics, and "Bioethics Inside the Beltway," a report written by a Washington insider updating bioethics activities on the federal level.

Published quarterly in March, June, September, and December for the Joseph and Rose Kennedy Institute of Ethics, Georgetown University
