The Philosophy Department, the School of Medicine and the College of Nursing of the University of South Carolina are jointly sponsoring a conference on Health Care Ethics, entitled "Reconciling Society's Interests with Individual Interests: Conflicts of Rights In Health Care", to be held November 9-10, 1979 in Columbia, South Carolina. The conference is being funded in part by a grant from the South Carolina Committee for the Humanities.

Conference plans include sessions on (1) Limits of Professional Autonomy, (2) Refusing/Withdrawing From Treatment: Who Decides?, (3) Death and Dying: Electing 'Heroic' Measures, and (4) Advancing Reproductive Technology: Who Decides?

Visiting faculty include: H. Tristram Engelhardt, M.D., Ph.D.; Mila Aroskar, R.N., Ed.D.; Guenter B. Risse, M.D., Ph.D.; Samuel Gorovitz, Ph.D.; Sally Gadow, Ph.D.; Thomas Szasz, M.D.; Ruth Macklin, Ph.D.; James Bryan, M.D., M.P.H.; Tom L. Beauchamp, Ph.D.; Daniel Callahan, Ph.D.; and George Annas, J.D., M.P.H.

PROBLEMS OF CHILDHOOD

While in paediatrics the spotlight has, perhaps swung recently on to behavioural and psychological aspects of child development, much of the clinician's time is still spent with acute and chronic physical disorders. Both these aspects of medical problems in childhood were reviewed in a series of BMJ articles published early in 1976, and these have been collected together after further revision by their authors. We hope the collection will prove useful to doctors at all stages of their careers: for children occupy a great deal of the time of every general practitioner, and confidence in their care demands both experience and knowledge.
