

I have read the BMJ policy on declaration of interests and declare the following interests:

Personal Financial Interests

- 1 Member of New Zealand's Advisory Committee on Assisted Reproductive Technology (ACART) 2016-
- 2 Member of New Zealand's National Screening Advisory Committee (NSAC) 2015-
- 3 I am reviews editor for the Journal of Applied Philosophy.

Non-Financial Interests

During the past 3 years I have co-authored or collaborated with the following people. In the event that one of them submits material to the Journal of Medical Ethics, the editorial conflict of interest policy will apply and I will play no role in the review or decision making about their submission. This policy will also apply to former graduate students and colleagues at the University of Otago.

Snelling, Jeanne
Gavaghan, Colin
Walker, Simon
King, Mike
Kerruish, Nikki
Wheeler, Ben
Lawn, Sharon
Delany, Toni
Foster Page, Lyndie
Gibson, Barry
Ballantyne, Angela
Pullon, Sue
DeLacey, Sheryl